Battle Lines Are Drawn In Local School Races

The Perry County School Board race has developed into what may be a hotly-contested campaign battle as all three incumbents have acquired opposition candidates.

Filing last Friday were Wm. G. (Bill) Campbell of Buckhorn in District 1, Norman Smith of Bulan and Cleon Smith of Ary, both in District 3.

These three join Matt and Delmer Couch in seeking to oust incumbents Hensley Sparks of District 1, Paul Campbell in District 2 and J. R. Hurt in District 3.

School board seats representing the other districts, held by Dacker Combs and George Caudill, are not up for election this year.

In filing his candidacy in the County Clerk's office, Wm. Campbell submitted a nominating petition bearing 40 names. Norman Smith's petition had 39 signatures while Cleon Smith's bore 63.

The deadline for filing came and went last Saturday with no last minute candidates announcing in the city school board race. Moscoe Blackburn remains as the only challenger to city incumbents Dr. Cooley Combs, W. W. Reeves and Paul Petrey.

Since there are no electoral school districts in the city, the three seats up for election will go to the men polling the highest vote.

Seasonal Jobs In Northern States Available At Employment Office

Fifty nine people have so far been hired to seasonal jobs in food canning factories through recent efforts of the Hazard employment office with the hiring season likely to continue for another week, the office said today.

The employment office also announced that steel mills in Indiana have several openings for semi-skilled and skilled workers paying from $2.28 to $3.18 per hour.

Further information is available at the office.

Comparative statistics from August, 1963 and the same month this year show the total number of unemployed people in Perry and Knott Counties with 300 applications on file in the local employment office to have almost doubled since last year.

In August, 1963 a total of 1,428 people in the two counties had active job applications on file in the employment office. Last month the total was 2,576.

Last month 203 people in Perry and Knott Counties filed initial claims for unemployment compensation benefits, compared to 177 in August of 1963.

This brought the total number of individuals with active compensation claims to approximately 550, compared to about 320 this time last year.

The employment office referred 255 persons to prospective employers last month, resulting in 173 being hired, 134 of these in local jobs. The other jobs were in other states.

In August, 1963, the office made only 176 referrals, with 73 hired.

The month of August saw no new unemployed fathers work projects begin, though 93 men were added to existing jobs, keeping the total number of workers in Perry, Breathitt, Knott and Letcher Counties at well over 1,000, according to the employment office.

A prominent Hazard physician, Dr. W. F. O'Donnell, died suddenly at his Woodland Park home this afternoon from a heart attack.

George Goss Fined $300 For Driving Without A License

George Goss, worker for the Appalachian Committee For Full Employment on High Street in Hazard, has been fined $300 and costs and sentenced to 30 days in jail for operating a motor vehicle without a driver's license.

The sentencing came after a hearing in city police court yesterday in which Goss pleaded guilty to the charge.

Police Judge Don Fouts filed away a charge of reckless driving against Goss pending any future appearance in his court for a moving auto violation.

Goss' license had previously been revoked for driving under the influence of alcohol.

Davis Men Convicted In Darfork Shooting

Bob and Henry Davis, cousins from Hilton, have each been sentenced to four years in prison after conviction in Perry Circuit Court last week of shooting and wounding with intent to kill.

The nine man, three woman jury returned the guilty verdict after listening to testimony for two days in an improvised courtroom in the basement of the VFW Club.

The trial resulted from a shooting incident last May 16 in which four persons were wounded in a tavern at Darfork. The Davils men were found guilty of shooting and wounding Richard Morgan. The Commonwealth also sought to prove the men were responsible for the wounding of Billy Jean Wells and Lucille White in the same shooting, but the jury ruled them not guilty on those two counts.

The Davis men remain charged with shooting into an occupied dwelling, and Bob is additionally charged with drawing and flourishing a deadly weapon. These cases have been continued to the November term of Circuit Court.

In other court action this week, Floyd Baker was found innocent of knowingly receiving stolen property.

Dishman Hamblin was ordered to pay $15 a month for child support and his case was filed away pending compliance with the court rule.

After failing to appear to answer charges of non support, Taylor Glen Stacy's bond was forfeited and his case continued. Other cases continued include:

Frank Combs, child desertion; Wilgus Couch, child desertion; Eugene Adkins, child desertion; failure to comply with orders of Perry Circuit Court; Grace Noplis, child desertion;

Joseph C. Jones, failure to comply with court orders; Troy Clemons, child desertion; and Elmer Owens, non support.

Trial dates for four murder cases have been set for the current term of court.

September 28, Calloway Combs Jr., will be tried for murder for the second time. Combs won a second trial while serving a life sentence imposed after conviction in 1963.

Other murder trials are those of Carla Hall October 1, Rex Kilbarn October 12 and Estlin Hall October 14.

Two attorneys took oaths last week, enabling them to practice law in Perry Circuit Court. They are Richard C. Ward of Hazard and E. Gaines Davis of Frankfort.

A BRIEF PREVIEW OF 1965 AUTOS

'65 Cars Feature Fastback Look

The 1965 automobiles are here and the big news this year is the sweptback look started by Barracuda and modified by the Ford Mustang. Almost all "fastback." Also available for the first time will be disc brakes (a $65-$100 option), Turbine engines, new bodies for the low-priced three, sport coupes, and a whole new generation of big cars to charm the most critical.

Thumbnailing the '65's, here is some of what you can expect: BUICK: Underneath the new B-O-P body will be a perimeter frame surrounding passengers with steel channels for safety. The same '64 engine will continue, teamed with a turbine-type transmission for gas economy. All styling will be close to the Riviera's short rear deck and long hood; with portholes emphasized to identify them as Buicks.

CHEVROLET: GM's giant goes into 1965 with an almost unbeatable five-ace hand. It opens with the standard Chevy sporting an all new B-O-P body on a perimeter frame to absorb road shock and reduce body noise. The grille becomes more pointed while chrome will be left off the body, a la Grand Prix For Styling, take a look at the '64 chevelle, add a pointed grille and 15-inch wheelbase, mix in a bit of Riviera and you'll be close.

Chevelle does not undergo much change, but the Chevy II will have a new image with the Super Nova styled like a Riviera, with fastback, to be Chevrolet's answer to the Mustang. Corvair is preparing to become the American Porsche. A new body will be live inches longer than the Monza and will be called the Monza GT or the Corsa. It too has the Riviera look with a fastback. The Corvette, in line with Corvette policy, will remain the same.

CHRYSLER: Turbine cars are the big news here. More conventional Chryslers will sport an entirely new body. Hood and deck of the cars will slope downward with the sides deeply sculptured. They will revert back to the more acceptable column-mounted, lever-transmissions as push buttons go kaput.

DODGE: It will be built pretty much along the lines of the Chrysler, but will introduce two new series that could be top sellers, the Coronet and the Polara with Monaco roof to compete with the Riviera. Dart will have some minor changes.

FORD: A wholly new body, styled somewhat like a 1964 Pontiac, with Mustang hardtop fastback roof, will lead Ford's charge into 1965. It will feature a front-to-back rail of chrome borrowed from the Lincoln. Falcon and Fairlane will change little. Mustang will continue the same line of very popular fastback models, while the T-Bird and Lincolns will continue 1964's successful styling and model line-up.

OLDSMOBILE: The new short deck, long-hood, B-O-P body, with a top from Riviera and rolled-under rocker panels will be a feature of large Olds for '65. The Olds line will add luxuries as accessories, such as a near-Cadillac engine, the Cadillac-type air conditioning, etc. A '65 1/2 will be introduced about midway that will be a sporty fastback in the Riviera body shell.

PLYMOUTH: Use of the new Chrysler base, with peaked profile and sculptured sides of the Riviera will give Plymouth a push back toward the sales race. A new series, the Satellite, will be aimed at the Impala buyers and will offer luxury that Plymouth has not had for some time. Valiant will have pretty much the same car as '64 with the front and rear styled after the Barracuda.

PONTIAC: The Riviera top, inward sloping backlight, and longer hood will identify Pontiac as a GM car, while a split grille proclaims it to be a Pontiac. The Buick-type turbine transmission replaces Hydramatic. The big news in Pontiac is a Tempest Le Mans GT fastback designed to challenge Corvett for the luxury sports car market, and it is a honey.

RAMBLER: Will add more trim and bigger engines plus sleeker lines to attract the younger buyers. A new line, the Sceptre fastback will be the top line sporty V-8 from Rambler. Another sporty fastback, the Marlin, will appear later in the year, featuring an overhead camshaft engine as standard equipment.

That is what the '65's will include. This is the year of the Big Change and it seems everyone went to a fastback, with Riviera styling.

Pine Mountain FHA District Meets Saturday

The Pine Mountain District of the Future Homemakers of America met Saturday, September 14th, at the M. C. Napier High School for a leadership training conference.

Officers, advisers, chapter mothers, and two new members from each of the 13 chapters in the district were invited. A total of 114 were present.

The Hazard Chapter was well represented by nine officers, two advisers, two members and one chapter mother. The Hazard members were proud of the outstanding job done by their two district officers, Susan Fischer and Paula Marcum.

At the meeting also were Sandra Pigman, past district president, and Ruth Rogers, past historian.

The theme of the meeting was "Leadership Under the FFA Big Top". The morning session included several talks and a skit by the district officers. The officers then divided into small group meetings; an adviser or consultant met with each group.

These group meetings gave the officers an opportunity to discuss any problems of their particular office and ways to improve.

The afternoon session began with a business meeting. Then Susan Fischer, Judy Noble, district president, and Miss Eugenia Halton told of their trip to the National meeting in Chicago.

Charlotte Dye, Kentucky FFA State President, visited the meeting and spoke on what it means to be a District and State officer.

The last talk was given by Mrs. Dortha Oatts, Assistant State Adviser.

Have you heard the expression "just a few lines to let you know we are still here"? Well that's the way we feel after missing the last two issues. Hope it won't happen again. Even though it was a wet, sloppy day we thought the 4-H Club parade Saturday was delightful. The children seemed so proud of their schools and their displays. For all of you who missed the 4-H Club window displays in town, we must say that they were marvelous this year and showed a lot of hard work on the part of the children.

An organization like the 4-H Club helps our children tremendously, in that it provides not only recreation and enjoyment for them, but also helps them learn so many things that will be useful to them in later years.

Hazard practice sessions this week have been most interesting after their disappointing effort against Whitesburg last weekend. The players have apparently not wanted to pay the price for a really successful season, but coach Jack Carey has put them through the wringer this week to see just who wants to play football for him.

Monday's practice was so bad that Coach Carey ordered his team off the field and into the showers so he wouldn't "blow his top completely" at the lackadaisical attitude of his boys.

It was most encouraging to see five Hazard players remain on the field even after the get-off-edict. Those five were not ready to quit practice because they want Belfry, and the team after that, and the team after that, and so on . . .

Those five were seniors Freddy Barnett, David Stanford, Tom Manning, and Juniors Bill Morgan and Keith Reynolds. It takes an inner toughness to play football and these five have it, but we also believe that everyone else on the team has it or they wouldn't be out there.

All it would take for a highly successful season would be for those other players to forget a good many of their outside interests and dedicate themselves to seven more weeks, of hard, rock-and-pop football.

Belfry would be a good team to start off with because they are waiting up there, big and cocky, after watching Hazard play Whitesburg. They want a shot at Hazard and they are ready. We hope the Bulldogs are.

Word has drifted down from higher sources that tackle David Olinger played his best game of the season against Whitesburg. David, who plays all three major sports, has an A average at HHS.

Others who played well at W-burg were O. J. Rowe and Bobby Marcum, although the latter did not play too much, he made some outstanding defensive plays, and Rowe blocked the last ditch field goal attempt that might have beaten the Bulldogs.

If Ole Miss doesn't destroy Kentucky this weekend, the Cats could have a winning season. There was a lot of optimism last year about this time, but the Johnny Rebs smashed the Wildcats and they never recovered from it.

Johnny Vaughn's line resembles a pro team with the smallest starter a 231-pound guard. Both ends tip the scale at 235 and one, Allen Brown is a prime All-America candidate, along with guard Stan Hindman, 238 pounds of muscle.

Jim Weatherly, the machine-gun passing quarterback connected on 25 passes last weekend for 260 yards, and if Kentucky threatens to stop this aerial attack, the Rebs will throw Kentucky's David Wells, a 205 sophomore wingback at them on the ground.

We'll be pulling hard for the Cats, but we'll be pulling even harder for Hazard. The UK-Miss game will start at 1:00 p.m.

Well, Napier gets to test the Whitesburg Yellow-jackets Friday night and we hope Ed Wilson's boys can spring an upset. The Jackets should be down after their all-out try at Hazard and Napier might just surprise them. Of course, the Navajos could have a difficult time getting up for the game, just coming off a bruising 54-12 loss to Elkhorn City. Jimmy McAlarnis continues to run well and could be a budding star.

Hazard - Belfry Contest Saturday Nite Important Region 4 Game

Hazard's hungry Bulldogs go pirate-hunting this weekend as they journey deep into the catacombs of Southeastern Kentucky for a Saturday night encounter with always rough Belfry. This game is, perhaps, the biggest obstacle to the Canines' hopes for a fifth Class AA, Region 4, section 2 title and a shot at their arch-rivals across the mountain, Middlesboro.

Belfry boasts a large team with good interior linemen and two excellent backs. They have compiled a 2-1 record with the tie coming last weekend, 14-14, at the hands of Welch, W. Va.

Hazard has gone through several hard practices after a 21-20 win over an underdog Whitesburg eleven and team spirit appears at its highest since opening night. Still the Bulldogs are only a one-touchdown favorite by the Liberators and upstate oddsmakers have installed Hazard as a two-point favorite.

JACK CAREY
Head Football Coach

The Dogs came out of the Whitesburg game without any substantial injuries and only one regular, O.J. Rowe, 6-3, 230 junior tackle, has been withheld from contact work this week. However, Rowe suited up yesterday to test a sprained ankle and will be ready by game time.

Hazard's starting lineup will go through no great revisions, with the offensive line the same as before, Junior Walker and Freddy Hogg at ends, Rowe and David Olinger at tackles, David Stanford and Tom Manning, two scrappy guards, and Gordon "Gigi" Benning at center.

The backfield is a different story as Coach Jack Carey can draw from 10 players. Quarterback Bill Morgan and halfback Houston Hogg are certain starters, with the other two, in all probability, being fullback Freddy Barnett, recovering from a back injury, and halfback Keith Reynolds.

With Morgan and Hogg in the backfield, Hazard has two backs that can run and pass. Whitesburg forgot that Hogg was once a quarterback and he tossed a 50-yard TD to Morgan.

If Reynolds gets the nod at right half, that will give the Canines three quarterbacks in the backfield and could provide many explosive situations.

H. Hogg is the team's leading pass receiver and scorer with rushing, averaging 5.4 on 252 five and 25 respectively. Upset-minded M.C. Napier Goes After Whitesburg Tomorrow Night

M. C. Napier's Navajos face another tough opponent tomorrow night when they journey to Whitesburg to tangle with the thrice-beaten Yellowjackets.

Whitesburg has lost three straight games to powerful opposition, falling before Belfry by one, Cumberland by six, and Hazard by one. The Jackets extended Hazard to the fullest before dropping a 21-20 to the Bulldogs.

In a couple of comparative scores it would appear Napier has their work cut out for them. Whitesburg punished Leslie Co. 56-0 and Napier edged by the Eagles 13-0. Hazard beat Na pier handily 33-0, but had their hands full with the Jackets.

Napier hopes ride on the swift feet of halfback Jim McAlarnis, who has turned in spectacular games the last two times out, including an 85-yard kickoff return against Elkhorn City.

Once again the Navajos defensive unit will have to cope with a flashy running attack. Whitesburg's William Wright, a 150 sophomore, is one of the area's best backs and almost ran Hazard into defeat as he scored all 20 points against them.

Ed Wilson's boys can expect aerial fireworks from QB Steve Wooton and Tommy Brock. it. Napier gave up six touchdowns via the air route to Elk horn.

Whitesburg's line is not too big, approximately the same size as Napier's, but is extremely quick. Napier will pin its defensive hopes on tackle Ken Finnism, and guards Jerry Wooton and Tommy Brock.

Coach Ed Wilson

To Carry the Load

These players are expected to carry much of the load for Napier's Navajos in their quest for an upset victory over Whitesburg tomorrow night. Pictured are, first row, left to right, quarter back-halfback Mickey (Joe Fields (11), halfback—defensive whiz George Ballard (21), and guard Tommy Brock (50). In the second row, left to right are, star halfback Jim McAlarnis (20), Tackle Rufus Rutherford (73)—a new recruit weighing in at 225, fullback Gene Ritchie (30), and quarterback-end Martin Allen (10).

E. Kentucky Softball Tournament Begins Sunday On Lothair's Field

The Eastern Kentucky Softball Tournament begins Sunday September 27, at Lothair Field, with the opening game starting at noon.

In this double elimination tournament, three games will be played this Sunday and the remaining three games on October 4.

The two winners will play the third affair with the winner advancing to the finals. On the next day's actions the other three teams will fight it out to play in the finals against the first Sunday's winner.

Jackson features a solid batting attack led by Breathitt County basketball coach Fairce Woods, Doug Allen, Don Allen, and J. Maloney. Roy Smith does their pitching.

Letcher county boasts a host of good ballplayers, while Grapevine has A. B. Holliday, perhaps the areas best pitcher, next to Lothair Gene Smith.

Lothair, winner 43 times in 52 starts this year, wears the favorite mantle and have a strong line-up to back the tag up.

Pick Rose, Marvin Meadows, Ken Cobb, Jim Hall and Chuck Meade led the batting order, with Rose and Meadows extremely effective on the defensive side of the infield.

Smith, in compiling a 29-5 record, has pitched 11 one-hitters and two no-hitters. Recently he pitched three-two hitters in one afternoon.

Morehead's Eagles Undefeated After First Two Starts

Morehead football coach Guy Penny, who some reporters have pictured a pessimist when discussing the 1964 football season, wants to dispell any such notion.

Following an easy 26-7 win over Butler University and a hard-fought 6-0 win over favored Marshall University, Penny says, "We are very pleased with the performance of our youngsters as they reached maturity Saturday night."

Marshall, which boasts its finest team in over a decade, was a pre-season pick to finish among the leaders in the rugged Mid-America Conference. Penny credits the Eagles win to "our fine conditioning and the fact that we had a game under our belts."

"Now we feel that it's time we talk about our strong points and quit emphasizing our weaknesses," added Penny.

The personable 36-year-old, who has put together two winning seasons in a row at Morehead, had nothing but high praise for end Richard Pare and quarterback Mike Gottfried. "Richard, who we feel is, as good an end as there is in our conference, played probably his greatest defensive game while Mike showed great poise and called a splendid game."

Gottfried was named the Shrine Game's most valuable player as he hit on 10 of 24 passes for 117 yards and the game's only touchdown. He also was effective on the ground with one 10-yard gain which came at a crucial moment on a third down and five situation.

Penny also had praise for the rest of his starting line, saying "Tackles Jim Osborne, Dick Jones and Paul Conner, guards Ken Howard, Mike Fletcher and James Hall, center Bill Hornbeck and end Jack Smith all played exceedingly well."

Halfback Tally Johnson, who gained 55 yards in 13 carries, also drew high praise from Penny along with fullback Russ Campbell, halfback Dennis Brown and freshman defensive specialist Tommy Gray.

Gray provided the break which eventually beat Marshall by returning an intercepted pass 56 yards to help set up the eventual winning touchdown pass from Gottfried to Dennis Brown.

Penny said his charges came out of the Marshall game in fine physical shape with only a few bruises and that the mistakes made in the Marshall game leave room for improvement.

"Our biggest problem now is to keep from getting stale with a week's layoff before our OVC opener with Tennessee Tech in Morehead on October 3," said Penny. "Last year we had the same situation prior to the Tech game and felt that we were not at our sharpest so we're changing our practice schedule this year."

Penny felt that Tech's surprising 27-0 loss to Arkansas State was not indicative of their true strength. "We know they have a real fine football team and we are going to prepare for them knowing that they had some tough breaks against Arkansas State."

Halfback Tally Johnson is the squad's leading ground gainer with 97 yards in 21 rushes for a 4.6 average while fullback Russ Campbell has picked up 95 yards in 21 carries for a 4.5 average.

Quarterback Gottfried has completed 13 of 29 passes for 170 yards and two touchdowns while Johnson is his favorite target with 4 receptions good for 25 yards. Halfback Dennis Brown is the team's leading scorer with 12 points while sophomore fullback Scotty Russell has the best punting average of 37.0 yards a boot.

As a team, Morehead is averaging 250 yards a game while limiting opponents to a 100 average.

TWO MINUTES

WITH THE BIBLE
BY WILLIAM R. STAN, PRES.
SOUTHERN BIBLE SOCIETY
CHICAGO 25, ILLINOIS

THOU SHALT NOT SMOKE?!

Have you read about the clear law against smoking cigarettes in the state laws of Illinois? It's been on the books since 1907 and here is what it says:

"Every person who shall manufacture, sell or give away any cigarette containing any substance deleterious to health, including tobacco, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $100.00 or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed 30 days."

This law has been on the Illinois state law books for 57 years, but in late years, certainly, it hasn't been enforced and most Illinoisans don't even know it's there. The reason is that so many people smoke cigarettes that the authorities don't even try to enforce it.

The prohibition era demonstrated the fact that human behavior cannot be legislated. That is even so with the law of God. Some people think that the ten commandments were given to help us to be good, but this is not so, for the Scriptures themselves state clearly that it was given to show us that we ARE bad and need a Savior.

Roman 3:19 declares that the law was given "that every mouth might be stopped, and that all the world might be brought in guilty before God."

Romans 3:27 says: "By the law is the knowledge of sin."

This is why we read in Rom. 8:3 that "what the law could not do, in that it was weak, on account of the flesh," God sent His Son to accomplish. Also in Hebrews 7:19 we read that "the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did." This is the "better hope" that we proclaim: that through Christ we may have "the forgiveness of sins" and "by Him all who believe are justified from all things, from which we could not be justified by the law of Moses" (Acts 13:38-39).

"Whether it is in our office in Hazard or meeting one of our Field Representatives in Jackson, Booneville, Campton, Hyden, Hindman, Beattyville, Jenkins, or Whitesburg, perhaps one thought is heard by our employees regarding social security more than any other," notes John Graves, District Manager in Hazard.

A person applies for his retirement, survivors, or disability benefits under social security and when advised how much the benefit payment will be exclaims, "Why, I can't live on that".

Social Security benefits, Graves reminded, are not designed to provide all you will need to live on. The original Social Security Act of 1935, set up a social insurance program operated by the United States Government to provide a base of protection.

In this basic protection a worker or his family will get from 1/3 to about 1/2 of what they would need to live on in the event income stops by death, disability, or retirement.

The worker is thus encouraged over his lifetime to add his own savings such as home ownership, life insurance, U. S. Bonds, and savings accounts, for example. In this way, Graves noted, social security cooperates with private agencies in meeting total security. "If we really stop and look at the situation," Graves commented, "we can understand why social security benefits only range from $32.00 to $127.00 a month for a worker, or from $60.00 to $254.00 per month for a family.

Many workers, Graves stated, pay as much as $174.00 to $260.00 a year in social security tax to provide the highest benefits. If payments were to be two or three times larger than they are now the tax would certainly be very high, perhaps as much as $500.00 per year."

"The important message we are trying to get across in this article is that social security is basic protection," Graves commented. Workers should plan their own programs and possibly private pensions also to add to Social Security.

The young worker, particularly, should plan for his family around Social Security during his entire working life. It is too late when we see in our office the worker who is just 65 and retired, for he can never go back and regain the past working years and income."

To help you plan the security of your family we invite you to visit the Social Security Office at 135 Memorial Drive, Hazard. See how your account stands.

Governor Appoints Advisory Boards For New Colleges

Seven-member advisory boards for University of Kentucky community colleges at Elizabethtown and Hopkinsville have been named by Governor Edward T. Breathitt.

These boards, the Governor pointed out, will assist the U. of K. administration and trustees in planning programs and operating the colleges.

"They were selected," he added, "on a non-partisan basis to provide the best-possible leadership for the two-year colleges."

Governor Breathitt pointed out that future appointments would be for four-year terms. He explained that the staggered length of the first terms were made to give the boards continuity and to prevent any one governor in the future from having control of an entire board.

The $851,550 facility at Elizabethtown opened for classes this fall. Apparent low bid for the Hopkinsville unit is $909,374. It is to open in September 1965. Meanwhile, an extension center is being operated there.

In addition to Elizabethtown, the new two-year college at Prestonsburg opened last month.

The community college system, with the completion of the units at Hopkinsville and Somerset for proposed 1965 openings, will total nine. Five others already in operation include those at Ashland, Covington, Cumberland, Fort Knox, and Henderson.

The four newest ones completed or near construction stage were among five authorized by the 1962 Kentucky Legislature. The other college was authorized for the Hazard-Blackey area.

'65 Pontiac Tempest

Would You Believe it? You Could Have One Of These For What You Pay For a Low-Price Car.

'65 Pontiac Tempest Tempest's even more of a Pontiac now, and what more could a car be than that! The '65 Tempest looks like a Pontiac, as you can see. Rides like a Pontiac on Wide-Track. Goes like a Pontiac, too: a 140-hp six is standard. Or you can get a quick V-8, up to 285 hp. You'll wonder how we can keep the price so low on so much car.

Some people think there must be a catch to the Tempest. They don't see how anyone could afford to lavish such plush interiors on a low-priced car without skimping somewhere else.

Hah! They forget that we Pontiac people have had loads of practice at giving a lot of car for the money.

Former Vicco High Coach Honored At Banquet

Charles Combs, principal and coach at Hartford High School, who resigned to become the new head coach at Daviess County High, was honored with a banquet last Saturday night by former basketball players and friends at the Ohio County Country Club.

About 60 persons attended the Charles Combs Honor Banquet at the Ohio County Club on August 22 in tribute to veteran coach and high school mentor Charles Combs.

A delicious dinner of fried chicken, barbecue and all the trimmings was served following a prayer of thanks by the Rev. Wesley O. Hanson. Charles Ranney was master of ceremonies.

Many stories—some amusing, some serious—were related by persons attending concerning their basketball playing days under Mr. Combs. A review of his first game at Hartford in which he used smaller, inexperienced boys and defeated a larger, experienced team was entertaining. From that first game, Mr. Combs took his Mustangs on to win more than 70 percent of his games in 20 seasons and 15 teams to the regional tournament. He won three regional tournament games and numerous invitational tournaments.

Johnny Oldham, Western Kentucky coach, presented Mr. Combs with a plaque inscribed as follows: "Charles Combs—Teacher, Friend, Coach. Your example will long be remembered by all who were associated with you, Hartford Mustangs, 1938-1964."

Ed Diddle, renown coach at Western State College, Bowling

Green, who recently retired, sent a personal letter of best wishes to Mr. Combs, accompanied by one of his famous red towels, and presented by Dr. Chalmer Embury.

Roy Barnhill recited an appropriate poem in a dramatic manner as only Mr. Barnhill can, in dedication to the coach.

The statement was made many times that Mr. Combs' sports record was excellent, but that his influence upon young people was his greatest contribution to the community.

Mr. Combs is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Dilce Combs, of Happy and a brother to Mr. "Percy" Combs and Mrs. Iona Mohr, of Happy, and Mrs. Ralph Bartlett, of Walkertown.

He is a former coach of the old Vicco High School.

Mrs. Townes Speaks To Homemakers Club

The Airport Gardens Homemaker's Club met Thursday, September 17, at the Wootton Elementary School. The devotional was given by Mrs. John W. Back, who read from Psalms 9:1-12.

The membership goal for the coming year was set at gaining new members. On the committee are Mrs. Watson Webb, Mrs. Garnett Leveridge, Mrs. Jimmy Gillum, Mrs. Adrian Jones, and Mrs. Flora Feltner.

The Birthday Offering was voted in by the members in June for the benefit of buying gifts for recreation. The offering for this month was from Lorinda Fugate and Mrs. Cunningham.

Members present were Mrs. Don Fugate, Miss Betty Lou Cunningham, Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. Charlie Fugate, Mrs. Flora Feltner, Mrs. Mike Frost, Mrs. P. H. Combs, Mrs. Jimmy Gillum, Mrs. Adrian Jones, Mrs. Hermila Coomer, Mrs. Claude Dixon, Mrs. Watson Webb, Mrs. Garnett Leveridge, Mrs. John W. Back, Mrs. Fred Skaggs, Mrs. Corbet Grigsby, and Mrs. Raleigh Napier.

The business session consisted primarily of choosing a coming hat. Our guest, Mrs. Townes, Home Demonstration Agent, presented the program on hat making. She also emphasized that a lady was not completely dressed without a hat and should be especially suitable for her shape of face and height.

Hats and hair must go together—so arrange your hair in a flattering style and choose a pretty hat that is becoming to your hair style.

The old business consisted of revealing the "Pollyanna Secret" (which was to let each club member learn who her secret and golden brown dried apple pal was for the past year). All members were amazed to learn who their secret pals were and thrilled, too, for the many nice gifts they received throughout the year. Mrs. John W. Back was so thrilled with her last Pollyanna gift she received in the meeting this month that she couldn't express her appreciation enough to her secret pal. She received two large cookbooks (which naturally would be a great thrill to any homemaker).

Exchanged gifts were given by each member.

Mrs. Raleigh Napier presented some new ideas of a fall plastic flower arrangements, and a complete fall arrangement that sat on a round mirror to reflect a larger and more beautiful compote. Most of the members put special emphasis on the arrangements and the harmony of colors.

To be a 100% member in the homemakers club was discussed. It is essential for each member to register at the annual meeting whether she can attend the whole meeting is not essential if she is to have 100% membership. The annual meeting for this year will be at the Roy G. Eversole Elementary School Friday, September 25. The hours will be from 1 p.m. until 3 p.m. Every member is urged to attend, if possible.

All members or new members who didn't attend the September meeting missed out on some important things for the coming year.

The recreation for the meeting was directed by Mrs. Raleigh Napier. Games consisted of "Finding the Flow-ers", "Because of a necessary extra business, there was a limit time on games and only one third of this game was played. The game will take up where it left off at the next meeting to be held October 15.

The hostesses, Mrs. Don Fugate, Mrs. P. H. Combs, Mrs. Raleigh Napier served cheese and cake, sponge, prune cake and golden brown dried apple pies. Mrs. Fred Skaggs served soft drinks and coffee.

"There would be fewer pedestrian patients if there were more patient pedestrians."

No Presidential Endorsement

The Hazard Herald does not plan to endorse either of the two major candidates for President of the United States this year, but it does intend to try to stimulate interest in the election by opening up its editorial page to commentary from readers, representing points of view.

Leaders of both political parties in Perry County have been offered equal space on The Herald editorial page for the statement of their views, to be run side by side in the issue nearest election day. Between now and then, however, we hope that many general readers will send us an opinion on the presidential election in the form of a letter to the editor.

In many ways the 1964 presidential election is unique. Drawing support from a growing "grass-roots" movement across the nation, Senator Goldwater is basing much of his campaign on a pledge to curb federal spending and involvement in local affairs, if elected. Hoping to preserve his position in the highest office in the land, President Johnson is pointing out the nation's general prosperity and promising to aid those who are not participating in that prosperity. Polls conducted almost daily show President Johnson in the lead at this point of the campaign, while at the same time reports from the Goldwater camp are filled with enthusiasm and optimism.

The results of all the speeches, all the charges and counter-charges by each side, all the campaign buttons, bumper stickers, private debate and public argument will not be known until late on November 3. At this point, the issue is still up in the air. Perhaps the opinions you express will influence the outcome of this important election.

Bookmobiles Are Important

With educational facilities so limited in our mountains, the letter, printed below, telling of the success of the Homeplace Community Center's bookmobile is welcome word that efforts are continuing to uplift our level of learning through reading.

It seems that the gracious people who run Homeplace began this service way back in 1930 and have continued it ever since. Books are a constant source of enjoyment—humor, mystery, educational, etc. to our children and adults as well.

It would be far-fetched to say that, if not for the Bookmobile, many rural children would not have the opportunity of reading books of their choice and we firmly believe that books are an essential ingredient in growth, maturity and education.

This service, financed by the E. O. Robinson Mountain Fund, is a great boon to our area. Just a quick glance at the following figures will point out its importance: last year the Bookmobile made 89,805 loans, with the following breakdown—Perry County, 51,864; Knott, 17,426; Wolfe, 12,021; and Powell, 8,494. Over 2,400 rural children borrow a book each week from the bookmobile.

So we salute the Bookmobile as it starts this, its 35th year of operation and hope that its continued good service and benefits to this community are appreciated by everyone concerned.

Together with the great efforts of the Bobby Davis Memorial Library's bookmobile, children of our county have access to a whole new world through reading.

Fire Engine Showpiece

Several local civic clubs have come forth with a proposal that the Old fire truck be made into a showpiece for the city of Hazard. The truck is approximately forty years old having been purchased during one of the terms M.K. Eblen was mayor of Hazard.

The idea was first introduced by a committee from a civic organization at the August 20 meeting of the Board of City Commissioners.

A suggestion that two ramps be built beside the present fire department to house the old truck and to provide a shelter for the Rescue Squad truck was personally endorsed by the board, on the condition that it not be too expensive to the city and that local civic groups contribute something to it.

Now the city has officially sanctioned the retirement of the big red engine and the antique will become a showpiece for the city.

The organizations need to raise something like eight hundred dollars to ensure that the shelter is built and the engine showpiece idea becomes a reality. We believe this to be a worthy cause and, if you are interested in it becoming an attraction, drop a dollar or two to the Junior Chamber of Commerce, or the Lions, or some such other civic club.

Face Of A Town

I'd like to narrate a brief story about a MAN, a man that is admired and respected by this entire community. As you read, you'll recognize just who I refer to.

For the past four years, he has waged a battle against a serious illness, one that is usually quite difficult to overcome, and one that the average person might have acceded to long ago—but this not an average man.

His determination and courage have brought him over almost impossible odds. This is not to say the fight is over, but the odds are turning and the illness is in retreat.

His value to our community is not measureable in common terms. Mosco Blackburn is an idealist, a man who firmly and reverently believes that the heart of this, or any, community is its children. To this end, Mosco has dedicated himself. Though his illness might have stopped a lesser man, it has served only as an impetus to push him to more (and very badly needed) work and activities for our children.

He is more than a foreman for the Kentucky Power Company; he is a foreman for every kid who needs something. When Dilce Combs, M.C. Napier, and Leslie County High Schools needed lights for their football fields they were stymied because of installation costs. Mosco fixed this in a hurry by spending his weekends doing the job.

When one of the little football teams came up short of uniforms and helmets, it was Mosco who drove to Louisville and bought those items so the kids could play. When a Baseball team lacks any equipment, Mosco sees that they get it.

It is Mosco Blackburn whose leadership was and is so important in making Little League baseball and football successful. Jim Caudill once said that without the little football program, he could not field a team worth having.

Mosco is the commissioner of the Little League program in Hazard and for all practical purposes, this 47-year-old man has become a legend in his community in his own time.

Mayor Willie Dawahare said, "children are our biggest asset and no one has done more for them than Mosco Blackburn. Our city is much the better for his presence."

City School Superintendent Roy G. Eversole stated that "the contributions of Mosco Blackburn to the Little League Program and all other recreational programs for young people in our community extends over many years. On behalf of our youth, I wish not only to extend appreciation on their behalf, but also to commend him."

And Hazard coach Roscoe Shackelford said that "listing the things Mosco has done for children and sports in this area would be like listing Sam Snead's achievements in golf."

But, perhaps the greatest tribute comes from the kids themselves—those who participate in the program are devoted to this man because, through his efforts and understanding, they are given a chance that many do not get.

Organized athletics build the body, and more importantly, the mind and character. Children learn to play together, to react quickly, to exhibit sportsmanship, and they learn the joy of comradeship. These are important aspects in their growing-up process and that Hazard children have the opportunity to begin this development at an early age is wonderful.

The pleasure our youth derive from the program is reward enough for his dedication and valiant effort to provide our community with recreational activity for its youngsters.

I think, Mosco, that I and the other members of the Hazard Herald, can speak for our citizens in most sincerely thanking you for your contributions, your help, and your concern for our children.

Misconstrued Editorial

(Reprinted From The Mountain Eagle)

We cannot help but be amused at the hue and cry that has gone up in Hazard recently to the effect that Perry County does not want and does not need outside help in solving its problems.

For if there ever was a town that owed most of its growth to outsiders and outside help, Hazard is that town. Just think for a minute about the last time you were in Hazard. Probably you drove along the fine by-pass that helps route traffic through Hazard, or perhaps you stopped your car and parked in the fine parking lot at the eastern end of the town. If you glanced up to the surrounding hillsides, you noticed the colorful rows of new housing units. If you went on through town, you noticed a lot of machinery at work on a new section of the Mountain Parkway—this particular section is one of the most expensive miles of road ever to be constructed in Eastern Kentucky. Or perhaps you were hungry and decided to drive up to Hazard's plush resort, LaCittadelle, for lunch or dinner. If you looked around while you were downtown you may have spotted the recently built Perry County Health Center and the new Social Security Administration district office building. And surely you would have noticed the demolition work under way at the old courthouse on Main Street, where a new modern courthouse soon will be built. If you talked with any merchants on Hazard's Main Street, they may have told you about the ambitious plan for a large tourist resort to be known as Magic Mountain, or they may have asked if you had yet visited Buckhorn Lake State Park's new lodge, located in Perry County not far from Hazard on a lake created by the construction of Buckhorn Dam. If you went out to Buckhorn, you passed by the fine hospital building formerly owned by the United Mine Workers of America. Maybe the merchant also told you of Hazard's plan for a new urban renewal project at the western end of Main Street, or the city's desire to obtain a new community college of the University of Kentucky. Or maybe he pointed out the area vocational school.

Not a one of the things we have mentioned was the result of the work of Perry County alone. The by-pass and the Mountain Parkway section are the work of the Kentucky Department of Highways. The fine parking lot at the eastern end of Hazard is part of an urban renewal project, financed mainly by a grant from the United States government; the new urban renewal project—if the people of Hazard don't vote it down—also will be financed by the federal government. The federal government also paid for the housing project and the Social Security building and has made generous contributions toward the new courthouse and health center. If Magic Mountain becomes a reality, it will be largely through a grant from the federal Area Redevelopment Administration. It was federal money which built the Buckhorn Dam and state money which erected the new lodge at the state park. The UMWA built the hospital and gave it to Hazard on a silver platter, and the state of Kentucky supplied the money to keep it in operation. The new community college which Hazard wants so badly will be built by the University of Kentucky, not by the people of Perry County. Even LaCittadelle is owned by a man who is really an outsider. The state of Kentucky finances the area vocational school.

And still Hazard people scream to the heavens that they don't want outside help, don't want to have anything to do with outsiders.

We only hope they will scream loud enough that the outsiders will get disgusted and bring their help on up the river to Letcher County, where we for one would welcome and appreciate them instead of urging them to get out of town.

(Editor's Note: We reprint the above editorial from the Whitesburg Mountain Eagle because we think our readers will be interested in what our neighbors have to say about Hazard.)

ard. The editorial apparently refers to a Herald editorial in August in which we stated that we did not welcome "outside" agitators who come to our community under the pretense of "helping" Perry County. The Mountain Eagle is mistaken in saying that Hazard is not aware of the many tangible benefits that have come our way in the last decade. We appreciate our blessings, and find them doubly satisfying in knowing that Hazard has worked hard to attract them here. The Mountain Eagle editorial contains several factual errors which we intend to reply to next week. In the meantime, let us say that if Whitesburg wants the agitators who have descended upon Hazard, then it is by all means welcome to them.

BOOK REVIEW

All books reviewed in this column are available at the Bobby Davis Memorial Library.

"The Last Love"

By Thomas B. Costin

To this novel of Napoleon on St. Helena and his love for a delightful English girl Mr. Costin brings what Clifton Fadiman calls "his own special gift for the intimate detail, based on careful historical research." The Chicago Tribune calls this new Costin novel "A charming tale, tastefully told." The Detroit Free Press says it is "smoothly written and satisfying."

"The Collector"

by John Fowles

"A real chiller, quite different from a thriller and much more rare. This book, in its quiet way, will make your blood run cold. It is the story of Frederick Clegg, an obscure little English clerk and collector of butterflies who wins a fortune and goes on to capture his finest specimen, a lovely 20-year-old girl, and hold her captive in a cellar. Time Magazine said of the book, 'Superb, Evil has seldom found quite so many excuses for itself and for that reason has seldom been so sinister.'"

"Joy In The Morning"

by BETTY SMITH

Another engrossing story by the author of "A Tree Grows In Brooklyn." Written with warmth and charm and set in 1927, "Joy In The Morning" is the story of Annie Brown, aged 18, and her first year of marriage to a young and struggling law student. "This is the warm, earnest glorification of the everlasting common man, and of purity, decency, love and goodness. Thousands and thousands of readers will eat this up, alternately smiling and weeping," says the New York Herald Tribune.

"Caravans"

by James A. Michener

Set in Afghanistan in 1946, this new novel by the author of "Hawaii and Tales of the South Pacific" deals with an American embassy attaché and an American girl who married an Afghan engineer and then disappeared. "The plot is as boldly romantic as AS is setting... a country few of us can even imagine... adventures which are almost unbelievable and wholly unforgettable."—Gilbert Highet.

Lots Of Questions

To The Editor:

The witch hunt for a communist is going in full blast, and the opposition is getting desperate for a culprit to pin the subterfuge on. If the County Judge would devote more of his time to the duties of his office, he would not have so much time for chasing imaginary communists out of the county. He could at least explain to the old and disabled citizens of this county why he did not set up a Public Assistance Advisory Committee to aid and assist the people to make proper applications for public assistance due them according to law. If he had exercised his authority, it would not have been performed by our public officials.

He could also have explained why the Fiscal Court failed to establish the number of deputy sheriffs this county is allowed according to statute, and what their salaries should have been.

I am sure the citizens would like to know what has been done with the county road building equipment and where it is being used at the present time. Several miles of county roads should have been built in the last three years if the machinery had been in use.

It would be interesting to know how much of the $485,000 bond issue voted by the people to build a court house has been collected and what disposition has been made of the money. It would also be interesting to know why the cost more than doubled after the Federal government agreed to help build the court house.

I didn't know that we had a Texas Exclusion Act upon the statute books, and I would like to know when it was passed by what legislative body.

Some of our public officials devote their time to the duties of their offices while others dabble into everybody's business and are interested only in building up political machines which will allow them to get their hands further into the public so as to better perpetuate themselves in office.

If what I have written does not coincide with my right to criticize every public act of our public officials then let them bring me to account by established legal procedures set out in our basic laws and not by underhanded methods which lean heavily towards a dictatorship.

Editor The Hazard Herald
Dear Sir:

The excitement and flurry of young people flocking back to school set me to thinking, and I wondered if you knew PERRY county had the first bookmobile in the State of Kentucky.

This service was initiated in 1930 by the Homeplace Community Center and is still operating. Two bookmobiles drive en by Everett M. Allen, Head Librarian, and Miss Marie Marvel, Assistant Librarian, work out of Homeplace on a tight weekly schedule. In the school year just completed they made 89,805 loans, with the following breakdown—Perry County 51,864; Knott 17,426; Wolfe 12,021 and Powell County 8,494.

It gives me great joy to know that more than 2400 rural school children borrow a book each week from our bookmobiles.

This is one of the services of Homeplace, financed by the E. O. Robinson Mountain Fund.

In Behalf Of Gibson

Editor,
Hazard Herald,
Dear Sir:

I doubt very much if this letter will ever be put in your paper. It seems that all you publish is things against Mr. Gibson and his organized pickets. I for one would like to praise this organization, because I think their only interest is the workers' welfare.

I would like to say about the editorial of Mr. Bob Taylor that Mr. Taylor has been misinformed or just doesn't know what he is talking about. The miners that went to Washington had poor clothes on, even patched overalls, because that was all they had to wear. Most didn't have one penny in their pockets to spend.

As for the mine owners statement, sure they would like to work a man like a slave for nothing. Let the mine owners pay a living wage and see how far he has to look for workers. Slavery has been abolished for a long time now.

I would like to see Mr. Taylor go looking for a job in Eastern Kentucky. I would like to see his face when someone offers $40.00 per week for 60 hours hard labor.

Sure, the politicians and big shots in Perry County can afford to sit back and say there is no poverty in Eastern Kentucky. They have their made and don't care about the poor people up in these hollows and creeks.

All work and very little money makes jack a poor worker, Mr. Taylor.

Senator Cooper, in Washington, said that this Bank in Hazard, Ky., had more money than most banks in Kentucky. What good does that do the poor miner? He wants work for his family and honest pay for it.

Wake up, Eastern Kentucky, and write your Congressman and the President. They are the only ones that can help us here.

Praise From Jaycees'

September 14, 1964

Dear Mr. Nolan:
Upon returning from vacation yesterday, I was delighted to see in the September 3rd Hazard Herald the amount of space devoted to publicizing the Jaycees' Family Day. Speaking on behalf of the Jaycees, we want you to know we certainly appreciate the contributions by you and the members of your staff.

The full page coordinate ad by Hazard merchants was eye-catching and you and the sponsoring merchants are to be commended for your splendid support of this event. You will be interested to know it was a financial success netting over $400 for future use by Jaycees in civic projects.

Thanks once again.

"Choosing a Becoming Hat" Is Theme Of Study of Viper Homemakers Club

"Choosing a becoming hat" was the theme of study at a recent meeting of the Viper Homemaker's Club. Mrs. Mabel Hall, a guest from the Walkertown Homemaker's Club brought the lesson. Mrs. Hall emphasized that a hat must do something for the wearer, and must be a planned part of the costume or wardrobe.

Facial shape is very important in choosing a hat, as well as in arranging the hair becomingly. A hat which enhances the lovely oval shape face might be disastrous on a lady with a round or square face. Hats can call attention to an irregular feature, such as a too-long nose, or can call attention away from this feature. Figure types should be considered in determining the shape and size hat, also. The smaller woman should wear small and feminine hats, with perhaps a little height. The large woman should be careful that her hats are neither very large or very small. A pill-box hat would probably be unattractive, while a draped beret might be very becoming for the larger woman. In addition, if a tall person is very thin, very narrow hats, or very wide brims are to be avoided.

Mrs. Cecile Townes, County Home Demonstration Agent brought hat forms for the women to try on. They then selected forms they would use in making hats at special interest classes to be taught this month at the Kentucky Power Company Auditorium.

Three county chairmen were present at the meeting. Mrs. Hall is the County Publicity Chairman, Mrs. Ruby Brashear is County Membership Chairman, and Mrs. John Peterson is County Reading Chairman. Mrs. Brashear and Mrs. Peterson are members of the Viper Homemakers Club.

One former member of the club was reinstated at the meeting, and a new member accepted. Anyone interested in the work of the Homemakers Club in this area should contact Mrs. Corbett Brashear, Viper. She is the club's Membership Chairman, and would be glad to give information concerning the club.

Mrs. K. C. Brashear was hostess to the meeting. A knitting basket made from a bushel gourd was an item of interest to the club members. The gourd was grown by the Brashears two years ago, and was cut by Mr. Brashear so that it had a natural wide handle over the top. Filled with knitting materials, it made a very colorful and attractive accessory. Mrs. Brashear is one of several members of the Viper Club who enjoy knitting, and has made several sweaters for herself and her daughter, besides many pairs of knit slippers. Refreshments were served by the hostess to eight members and the two visitors, Mrs. Townes and Mrs. Hall.

The October meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Millard Halcomb on October 14 at 1:00 p.m. Hats continue to be the subject for discussion. Visitors are welcome.

Missouri School Installs Seat Belts For Drivers As Part Of New Crusade

Long before school bells rang this year a "Show me" Missouri school board reviewed seat belt safety statistics and reports of school bus accidents with representatives of a Lexington, Kentucky seat belt manufacturer. The school board, as a result of this investigation, became the first to "Show" the rest of the country a significant step toward achieving a safer 1964-65 school year.

Poplar Bluff, Missouri became this fall, the first community to enroll in Irving Air Chute Co.'s "School Bus Safety Crusade" by equipping their entire fleet of city school buses with Irvin seat belts. According to Irving representatives, the "Crusade" was born as the result of last May's Rowan Co. School Bus Tragedy in which fifty one children were injured. Although the Poplar Bluff presently have seat belts installed for the driver only, this is not so poor a compromise as might appear. Statistics gained from studies of actual accidents involving school buses reveal that many minor accidents became major ones because the driver was jostled away from his seat losing control of the bus.

Meanwhile, Irving is working with School Boards throughout the country to urge them to follow Poplar Bluff's example in taking the first important step by providing increased driving control through seat belt equipped drivers.

PRESENTING Cadillac FOR 1965

SO NEW! SO RIGHT! SO OBVIOUSLY CADILLAC!

The 1965 Cadillac is the most dramatically new Cadillac in sixteen years; new from chassis to rooftop and new from start to stop. Its remarkable styling—elegant, majestic and impressive as never before—establishes it instantly as an all-time Cadillac great. And not only is it an inspiration to look at—it is a revelation to drive! The marvelous responsiveness of Turbo Hydra-Matic is now standard on all eleven models. A new concept of frame and suspension gives the car incredible steadiness and levelness of ride—even under the severest conditions of cornering and handling. And there is quiet—quiet beyond anything you imagined possible in a motor car! Cadillac's new and more spacious interiors are marvelously rich and luxurious—and include such personal options as an exclusive tilt and telescope steering wheel. Cadillac owner or Cadillac admirer—you owe yourself a journey at the wheel without delay. You will know at once that this is—in every way—the new Standard of the World!

'IT IS WONDERFUL TO BE ABLE TO HEAR
AND LEAD A NORMAL LIFE AGAIN'

Bill Gardner

The following letter was sent to Beltone of Hazard by Reverend Don Richmond, who is Assistant Manager at Mack's Supermarket at Baxter.

Rev. Richmond writes:

"Being a minister my hearing loss had me almost whipped. I couldn't hear to conduct my services and had come to the point where I was convinced that I wouldn't be able to pastor again."

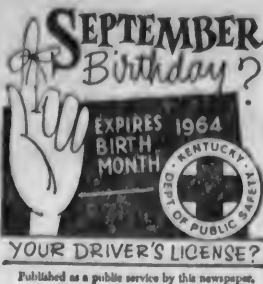

Then one day a Beltone Hearing Aid Consultant came to my home and proved to me I could hear again. By this time I had given up my church, and now thanks to God and Beltone I have since received a larger church.

I would like to be able to tell everyone that suffers from hearing loss that Beltone would solve their problems for them. It is wonderful to be able to hear and lead a normal life again."

Thanks Again,

Rev. Don Richmond

Advice On Controlling Mosquitoes To Guard Against Sleeping Sickness

Control mosquitoes around your home to guard against encephalitis (sleeping sickness), recommends Fred Knapp, UK Agricultural Experiment Station entomologist. The present encephalitis epidemic in Boyle county makes mosquito control vital in preventing spread of this disease, he warns.

"We are almost sure that the common household mosquito (Culex pipiens) is the carrier which is spreading encephalitis in Boyle County," according to Knapp. "Since mosquitoes carrying the encephalitis virus might 'hitchhike' in cars, cattle trucks, etc., to other areas of the state, mosquito control throughout Kentucky is very important at this time."

The mosquito can pick up the virus from any common carrier of the disease—birds, rodents, horses or other animals—and transmit it to humans, he says. Only the adult female mosquito bites, but her bite can be very dangerous to humans if she is carrying the encephalitis virus.

The mosquito is troublesome to humans only at night, starting about dusk. During the day, the adult mosquito rests under eaves, on shady spots of building walls, and in bushes around the house. The mosquito breeds in stagnant, polluted water, and the immature form (larva) of this insect can be found where water is standing in ditches, old cans or tires, or any container.

This year's severe mosquito infestation—and the subsequent encephalitis trouble—probably stems from the drought. Lack of rain has caused many running streams to dry up until only pools of water are left—and large numbers of mosquitoes are breeding in this stagnant water.

TO CONTROL MOSQUITOES, get rid of any places where they might breed. Knapp recommends. Destroy any containers that might catch and hold water and drain any standing pools of water, if possible. If standing water cannot be drained, spray the pool with a light oil such as kerosene or fuel oil.

To kill adult mosquitoes outside the house, spray their resting places—under eaves, shady walls and bushes—with any ONE of the following insecticide mixtures: malathion (57 percent liquid concentrate)—8 tablespoons to 1 gallon of water; DDT (25 percent liquid concentrate)—1-2 pints per gallon of water; diazinon (25 percent liquid concentrate)—13 tablespoons liquid concentrate to 1 gallon of water.

Any ONE of these mixtures also can be used instead of oil to control mosquito larvae in standing water. Or you may substitute oil for the water in any of these mixtures and spray this on stagnant pools. However, DO NOT use these insecticides on any pools or ponds where pets or farm animals might drink. You may use a pyrethrin spray where animals drink, but this insecticide is rather expensive for widespread use. Also, DO NOT use an oil spray on any foliage.

Chevrolet Impala '65

It's longer, lower, wider—with comforts that'll have many an expensive car wondering why it didn't think of them first. More shoulder room, more leg room up front. Curved side windows, an instrument panel that's a conversation piece. In fact, just about everything's new right down to the road. And even that'll seem newer because the Jet-smooth ride is smoother than ever.

'65 Chevrolet Malibu Super Sport Coupe

Chevelle Malibu '65

Here's all that made Chevelle America's most popular new-sized car—plus some new surprises. Like those cleaner, bolder lines. Like the silky way its new ride skims over the choppiest roads. Like V8 power that'll make you think we stole some of Corvette's stuff—which we did. All told, five engines are available from a quieter six to a V8 that comes on 300 horses strong.

'65 Chevy II Nova 4-Door Sedan

Chevy II Nova '65

It may be the expensive-looking thrifty car you've laid eyes on. But thrifty it is. The big difference being that Chevy II's marvelous mechanical efficiency now wears a debonair new look. And offers a new range of engines, including a new 300-hp V8. You could get the idea that saving you money was the last thing we had in mind—if it weren't for that price sticker on the window.

We couldn't make Comet much tougher, so we made it more beautiful. Made the outside sleeker, sportier—from every angle. Made the interiors more luxurious. Made every engine bigger, from the 200 cu.-in. "6" through the hefty new 289 cu.-in. Cyclone Super V 8 225 hp. Made the ride even smoother, more solid and silent. The one thing not new in this racy '65 sequel is the stamina that made Comet the World's Durability Champion. You wouldn't want that to change, would you? It didn't.

1965 Mercury To Be On Display September 25

The 1965 Mercury, three inches longer and more luxurious than in 1964, presents the most extensive change in the 26-year history of the car.

Conceived, developed and crafted in the Lincoln Continental tradition, the new Mercury brings to the medium-priced field new standards of comfort and engineering excellence.

Even in its styling, the Mercury for 1965 resembles the Lincoln Continental with its clean, classic look of elegance and formality.

The new Mercury has a 123-inch wheelbase, is 218.4 inches in over-all length and features new frame design, front and rear suspension, and rigid body construction.

"Lincoln-Mercury is the only division offering products in the medium-price field that also has long experience and acceptance in the luxury field," said Paul F. Lorenz, Ford Motor Company vice president and division general manager.

"With the new Mercury, we now are offering the same successful concepts that were developed for the Lincoln Continental in the luxury field."

The 1965 Mercury will go on sale in Lincoln-Mercury dealerships September 25.

The Mercury will be available in a broad selection of 15 models in three series, Montclair, Montclair and Park Lane. There will be six roof lines, including the Breezeway four-door sedan, again unique in the industry. Other roof lines are the conventional two-door and four-door sedan, a formal four-door hardtop, a two-door fast-back hardtop, plus the convertible and the station wagon.

The appearance of the Mercury, which is unlike any predecessor model, is dominated by slim blade-like front fenders and flat, uncluttered side panels, similar to the Continental. Slender parking lights at the extreme edge extend from bumper to fender top. Tall, vertical taillights frame the wide, clean trunk lid, so that the crisp rear appearance complements the frontal styling character.

Mercury's reputation as an outstanding road car is strengthened for 1965 with important engineering advances in body, frame, suspension and steering. The over-all design nests the body deep into the new torque box frame, increasing the floor space and the body interior height, while the over-all height of the car is decreased. The torque box frame is lighter and absorbs more of the road shocks, preventing them from being transmitted to the passenger. More interior spaciousness is gained in the driver's compartment, too, with a reduction in transmission tunnel and a recessed instrument panel.

Better balanced road stance is obtained by increasing tread to 62 inches, up one inch in front and two inches in rear. New front and rear suspensions improve roadability. The drag strut front suspensions permits compliance force and aft when the front wheels encounter uneven road surfaces. The rear suspension is a new coil spring cushion-link design which gives a softer ride than the leaf springs formerly used in the Mercury.

Important improvements in steering include a reduction in over-all steering ratio and a new power steering system with integral gear design and new power steering pump. Wheel diameter is increased from 14 to 15 inches, contributing to better braking and longer brake lining life. Low-profile tires lengthen tire life.

A new emergency signal system, which puts front and rear parking lights on a flasher cycle, is available for all models. Another safety feature is a mechanical switch mounted on the brake pedal arm which turns on the stop lights when the car decelerates.

Showers of Rain Please Hunters

By Elsie Noble

The little shower of rain that we have had has sure pleased the squirrel hunters.

Wireman Neace, Ben McLe-more, Omer Landrum and Gay Allen have all gone to the flat country squirrel hunting. We don't know what kind of luck they have had since they haven't returned yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Campbell, of Lexington, have moved back to their old homeplace on Frances Branch.

Mrs. Polly Holliday Elson and family visited their farm at Indian Field Sunday.

Mrs. Laura B. Campbell was the Friday night guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Campbell.

1965 Cadillacs On Display September 24

Cadillac for 1965 represents the most extensive change in the divisions 62-year history. Completely new from top to bottom, inside and out, the 1965 models will appear in dealer's showrooms on September 24, according to Harold G. Warner, general manager of Cadillac and vice president of General Motors.

Eleven models are offered in three series for 1965. The series are Calais, new this year and replacing the Sixty-Two series designation, Deville and Fleetwood.

A new sedan model with a thin pillar replaces the six-window body style in the Calais and DeVille series.

The new model in the Fleetwood series is the Sixty Special sedan with its own exclusive 133-inch wheelbase and an overall length of 227.5 inches, an increase of four inches which is realized largely in the rear passenger compartment.

All other models, except the Seventy-Fives, retain a wheelbase of 129.5 inches. Overall length is 224 inches, up one-half inch over last year. The Fleetwood Seventy-Five sedan and limousine carry over their 1964 dimensions and exterior styling.

About the 1965 Cadillac Mr. Warner said, "From any angle, the broad front end, the long and low silhouette, the strong identification from the rear of the distinctive upper structures, the 1965 says Cadillac."

The front view is massive, with Cadillac's traditional cross-hatch grille which extends between vertically mounted headlamps. The parking lamps are recessed into the new bumper.

Setting new standards of luxury, this 1965 Cadillac Fleetwood Sixty Special Sedan is four inches longer than last year. The extra length, exclusive to this model, is realized almost entirely in the rear passenger compartment. With a vinyl-covered padded roof the Sixty Special is designated as the Brougham and is distinguished with special Brougham script next to the wreath and crest on the side of the roof.

From the side, Cadillac's length is emphasized by clean unbroken lines which are accented by three distinct planes of metal.

From the rear the 1965 bumper is big and broad; the vertical bumper ends house the tail, stop, directional and back-up lights, giving excellent nighttime recognition.

All of Cadillac's upper structures are restyled and feature curved side windows. Both convertibles have curved tempered glass backlights.

Comfort and convenience are the key words for the interior of the 1965 Cadillac. All seat-backs in the Calais and DeVille models are higher and contoured. The front floor tunnel is substantially reduced in size in all models. And a new concept in instrument panel design results in additional knee and leg room for front seat passengers. Contributing to the comfort and convenience story are three new Cadillac options for 1965.

The first is a telescoping steering wheel which allows a three-inch field of movement for maximum adaptability.

This telescoping feature is in addition to the tilt steering wheel of he past two years.

A second option is the redesigned power door locks. When a front door is locked or unlocked all other doors adjust accordingly, and all doors unlock when a key is used from the outside.

Yet another new feature is an automatic leveling device which maintains the car at design or normal height regardless of passenger or trunk load. It is standard on the Sixty Special sedan and Eldorado convertible.

Today is '65 Pontiac Day.

1965: The year of the Quick Wide-Tracks

What do we mean by "quick"? Just this: A new-all-over Pontiac offering a new Turbo Hydra-Matic—the silkkest, swiftest-shifting automatic transmission you ever touched a toe to; eager new Trophy V-8 power; new steering agility; a surer-footed Wide-Track ride. And a new Pontiac Tempest that's become even more of a Pontiac with new style, new length and Pontiac-quick reflexes to match. You never knew cars could be so beautiful, and so keenly alert to your touch. This is your year to drive a Wide-Track—quick!

'65 Pontiac Pontiac

How does the success car outdo itself for 1965? Beautifully, just beautifully. But this Pontiac has no intention of getting by on looks alone, though it could. So there's new quickness, Pontiac style. A new nimbleness. New fuel savings. A smooth, easy new ride. Drive a '65 Pontiac and see how one success leads to another.

'65 Pontiac Tempest

Tempest's even more of a Pontiac now, and what more could a car be than that! The '65 Tempest looks like a Pontiac, as you can see. Rides like a Pontiac on Wide-Track. Goes like a Pontiac, too: a 140-hp six is standard. Or you can get a quick V-8, up to 285 hp. You'll wonder how we can keep the price so low on so much car.

TOO BAD

That we didn't get to see Tenn. Ernie Ford while he was in our midst a few nights ago, he spent the night at the LaCidelle along with his sons. No doubt he was tired from making various appearances in other sections. We are only glad to see such people stop by to see us now and then. Folks believe me if you think roads don't get the job done you are mistaken, I dare say we should be thinking of these missing links in our Highways. Lets get busy and let's start to work on seeing that we will soon have these missing links tied together.

TIME TO LOOK INTO

Folks I would say if you are becoming of the age near sixty five, or maybe earlier, I would suggest that it is time to check on your SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS. Don't wait until the time is no you DO IT NOW. To all you firms in our area I would like to give you some figures in regard to the amounts that are paid into our area in regard to Social Security benefits. Perry County is receiving $284,442 monthly benefits, Letcher County is receiving $234,615 in monthly benefits from people that are eligible to draw these Social Security Benefits. Over the entire eight County areas that your local Security Office Operates over, last year this eight County area received $10,765,224. Folks this is something to think of. Why not visit your local office today to get your correct status of your standing? They are more than willing to offer you the information you will need. This I would suggest you do now, it will enable both you and the staff of the Social Security Board to render you a faster answer to all your problems. Don't put off these things it could hinder you receiving your benefits.

Many of you thought we were going to have an unusual early fall because of the cool weather with frost on certain areas, now we are reversed and it has become real hot again. The rains did finally get here which I know you squak hunters was glad to see this past week end. I like many of you was looking forward to it, but other plans popped up that I had to leave town. I have heard some rumors that many of you did alright. One of the most interesting was told that little Doug Holliday who lives up in the Gomawr area, he has been making some trips with his Grandfather Calley Collins, but they hadn't had any luck, think Calley had been blaming Doug for making too much noise, so Doug took off by himself near his home, wasn't gone too long until he came in with two, which I am told he was as proud as a peacock, which I can't say I blame him. A boy about twelve to thirteen years old this is a feat to long remember as these were his first squirrels to kill. He came by to show them to his grandfather, who was not home, Doug wasn't to be out done so he cut their tails off and left them on his bed, along with a note done in large print stating, DOUG HAS BEEN HERE, NOW WHO IS MAKING THE NOISE IN THE WOODS?

SMALL WORLD

That has the meeting in many instances, few days ago I read in the daily paper that there was going to be a Baptist gathering on Grapevine Creek in Anderson County, which is where a friend of mine lives Ed Adams who is head of the JUNIOR CONSERVATION PROGRAM IN KY., As I recall at one time Ed re. marked about me mentioning a Grapevine Creek here in Perry County, which it so happened to be having a meeting at a BAPTIST CHURCH at the same time here in Perry Co., as they were in Anderson Co., both on the same Creeks named GRAPEVINE. So COLONEL ED, we have a lot in common in regard to the sections that is known to both of us. Maybe you didn't know about the Grapevine in your County or at least you never did speak of it. At this time to want to mentioned the wonderful Camping Season you had this year, many of our youngsters attended the camps from our area this season, it is a wonderful program, I am confident it will continue to grow, which all of our youth programs will continue to expand, I realize that it is an ever increasing demand which I know that our youth of our Com. monwealth is going to demand as time rolls on. I would say that if we had more such progress, we would have fewer of the delinquent type kids that we read so much about. I am confident that we can never stress enough the importance of the youth programs of various types that are being conducted by different organizations over the entire state. I am proud of the program that is sponsored by the DEPT. OF FISH AND WILDLIFE RESOURCES.

HAVE YOU ALL

Noticed so much activity around the Perry County Health Dept., maybe some of you have and maybe not. I think it is wonderful that we have a Health Dept., to render this type of aid to our on coming generation by that I mean by giving our school children the medical examinations now in their younger years to determine just what medical attention they might need before they grow to old, and will no doubt correct many things in regard to many that would not be able to receive this Medical care that is so badly needed in our area. Which has long been a serious problem with the school children in especially our rural areas. To me this is another step in advancement of our educational program here in Eastern Kentucky. Sometimes I wonder if we as citizens realize the real meaning of such things as medical care for all. Are we doing the things that is needed toward such agencies as the Health Dept. to work more efficient, we as private citizens should offer all the help toward all types of medical care for this section. We are limited to both Doctors and Nurses, also trained personal to care for the sick and needy in time of illness. I have often thought what would happen to many here if we should ever have an out break of some contagious disease on a huge scale. How many would lose their lives because we would not, have the amount of efficient help? Folks, this is a Community service that we need we should be thinking more of some type of all to think a little more about. I think maybe training program to ask for volunteer help. I am confident that the Health Department could have used many of this type of workers if they had been trained a little. I know it must have been a great ordeal for the workers that have spent so much time here during this mass health program for the children of our area.

Junkyard Dealers Comply With Law

Almost half of Kentucky's junkyard dealers have submitted applications for permits in compliance with the state's screening law, Highway Commissioner Henry Ward announced today.

Ward released figures which showed that 44 applications for permits were received during August, thus bringing to 410 the total number of applications received by the Department's Office of Compliance.

There are presently 900 junkyards in operation in Kentucky, and this figure is expected to decrease as District Office personnel inspect premises.

Plans for screening are submitted with applications, and a permit is issued only after the junkyard operators have erected suitable screens.

Buick

We changed the Buick a lot this year. And you may never be the same again yourself.

We doubt you'll want to be the same. Not once you set eyes on our new Buicks. On the Buick Special and the Skylark. The LeSabre, Electra 225, Riviera.

And on the sleek, modified fastback of the wild, wilder, Wildcat in the picture. True, there's a new high-style touch. But that's hardly all. Engineering still has the emphasis. It's a Buick tradition. So are the extras Buick spends a little extra on. Like finned brake drums that do a little better. And smoother drivelines. A tuned suspension to smooth ribcage roads. Now add Buick's Super Turbine transmissions—and you have an idea of what Buick owners have always liked about Buick. We think you'll feel the same.

Wouldn't you really rather have a Buick

Women's Society of Mormon Church Has Chorus of Four Hundred Voices

In your community there is a mothers' organization, a local chapter of the oldest national women's organization in America, which devotes itself year round to the interests of mothers, doing, as has been said, work mainly "in no man's land," work which no man can or will do," and to self improvement.

This is the Women's Relief Society of the Mormon Church, described by one writer as "Norman Angels of Mercy" and by a church leader as being to the church what the mother is to the home.

One of the activities for self-improvement and self-expression offered to these women is the Singing Mothers Chorus. Each year, a combined chorus of 400 voices, made up of selected singers from 12 to 15 different chapters from over the United States, is assembled in Salt Lake for Concert. This year a combined chorus of 300 voices gave four concerts at the New York World's Fair.

Your local chapter of The Women's Relief Society is one of 6350 chapters around the globe; 202,000 members in 52 countries. The Society was started 122 years ago and is thus by far the oldest national women's organization in the United States. It was represented at the first meeting called by the National Woman's Suffrage Association in Washington, D.C., in 1883 and in 1891 it became a charter member of the National Council of Women of the United States and is today one of the 26 members of that Council.

The main emphasis is on compassionate services, caring for the sick, the bereaved and the needy. In homemaking sessions the women study sewing, dress-making, child care, selection and preparation of foods.

In their educational program, the members of the Relief Society study a different area of literature each year and various social science topics, have courses in theology and programs to promote significant discussions in the family circle.

Music is an important part of every Relief Society meeting and it was this that led to the development of the Singing Mothers Chorus.

The Relief Society also supports and publicizes and urges its members to contribute individually to such worthy public programs as the American Cancer Society, the National Heart Association and the American Red Cross.

Headquarters of the Society are in Salt Lake City, Utah, where the headquarters of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, commonly known as the Mormon Church, are also situated. Their gleaming white stone building is one of the show places of the city.

The national president is Mrs. Belle S. Spafford now serving her 20th year. She is former president of the National Association for Practical Nursing Education and Services, and was a member of the National Advisory Committee which selects the American Mother of the Year, and is a member of the Women's Advisory Council of the New York World's Fair.

Your Local Relief Society meets every Tuesday at 8:00 o'clock at Julia Newman's residence on High Street.

1965 Dodge Darts To Be Displayed September 25

The 1965 Dodge Dart, extending its tradition of "more compact car for the dollar," will introduce a lower-priced two-door hardtop, a higher performance V-8 engine and an optional built-in air conditioner providing both heating and cooling.

Dodge's 111-inch-wheelbase models for 1965 present a lower and wider appearance, achieved by restyling the entire front end and redesigning the rear end.

The 20 six-cylinder and V-8 models are offered in three series:

Dart (formerly Dart 170), Dart 270 and Dart GT. They will make their public debut in all Dodge dealerships next Friday (September 25), the same day as Dodge's 1965 Coronet, Polara and Custom 880 lines.

Bigger and Roomier
"Bigger and roomier than most of the other cars in the compact class, the Dart will still be the best buy in the compact market," Byron J. Nichols, Dodge general manager, said.

The new hardtop, powered either by a six-cylinder or V-8 engine, rounds out the Dart 270 series line-up. Compact hardtop models previously have been available only in the top-of-the-line GT series.

The high performance engine, an exclusive in the Dart line, is a four-barrel carburetor version of the standard 273-cubic-inch V-8 and is rated at 235 horsepower. It is equipped with a long duration camshaft, special intake manifold and special pistons that boost the compression ratio to 10.5 to 1.

For the first time in the Dart, the factory-installed air conditioner provides cooling of fresh outside air and also combines heating and cooling in the same unit. This is accomplished by the use of separate air circuits for the heater core and cooling coil.

This compact system is packaged behind the instrument panel. Removal from the passenger compartment of all components that could be relocated provides improved foot and leg room for the front seat occupants.

Basic exterior dimensions of Dodge's compact Dart, for the third consecutive year, are 196 inches in over-all length, 70 inches in width and 54 inches in height. The four station wagons—all six-passenger, four-door models—likewise retain the same measurements and again provide 68 cubic feet of cargo space.

Full-Width Grille

The wider and lower look for the 1965 Dart is produced at the front by a full-width, horizontal-barred grille, an aluminum border framing both the grille and single headlights, and a deeper-than-usual bumper.

NEW DODGE DART—Dodge's sporty two-door Dart GT hardtop for 1965 features an optional black or white vinyl covering for the roof which gives it a landau effect. The GT hardtop is one of 20 six- and eight-cylinder models offered in the '65 line of family-size Dart compacts. The new Dart goes on sale at Dodge dealerships Sept. 25.

The big oval-shaped tail lights are split—half in the rear panel, half in the trunk lid face—with the outer halves also serving as stop lights and turn signals.

Each of the series has its own distinguishing exterior ornamentation, but all three have rolled stainless drip rail covers and back window moldings extending along the tops of the rear side panels. Side trim below the window on the sporty GT series is limited to three simulated exhaust ports, stainless steel moldings around the wheel openings and name letters at the rear.

An option on the Dart GT hardtop provides a landau-type roof by covering the forward section, which is set off by two bright horizontal moldings, with either black or white vinyl. A new paint finish previously used only on more expensive cars if offered in 15 colors. An acrylic enamel, its luster can be easily restored by buffing if neglect causes a dulling film.

For the interior, blue, tan, turquoise and red are color choices in the Dart and Dart 270 series for both cloth-and-vinyl and all-vinyl upholstery. The Dart GT series again offers blue, tan, red and black plus a new white-with-gold color scheme.

Reduces Reflections

The instrument panel top is covered by a dark suede-like material. Improvements have been made in the Torque Flite automatic transmission to increase shield reflections, and all other its durability and torque capacity interior painted surfaces are a city.
